

I do not want the "Do Not Call" to be weakened. It is a pleasure to sit and eat a meal without all of the unwanted phone solicitations. It is also wonderful to spend a lazy Saturday or Sunday morning resting without being awoken by a salesperson. Please keep this law in effect!